

DALLAS LOCAL

Mr. Bonnie Mitchell of 2004 Flora street, spent Sunday in Waco, guest of Miss Mable Polk, Waco, Texas.

Mrs. Lavenia Mitchell and baby left Friday for Kansas City, Mo., to visit her sister. She will then go to Detroit to join her husband.

Mrs. Lou Willie Lockhart after a pleasant sojourn to Navasota, her old home is again at home, 2625 Flora street.

Mrs. Albert Scott of 1900 Bol street, made a flying trip to Terrell last Thursday.

Miss Fannie Wagoner of Ft. Worth, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. M. A. Curtis, 2512 Flora street, this week.

Rev. C. L. Bryant, pastor of Church of the Living God came in from a trip over the state Sunday and filled the rostrum at his church, Sunday morning and night.

Your subscription is due, pay now. When you have news and you are in North Dallas, stop at Gooden's grocery store on State and Thompson street and drop your news in the box.

Mrs. Alberta Boswell-Moore is visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boswell, 1115 Allen street.

President Stephens of the young men's business league headed a delegation from this organization by special invitation of president of the Negro Business League. The object of the coming together was to eliminate between the two organizations mutual trust.

It is worth while to be laughed at as a youth for being "tight" if the "tightness" is a means of reaching a desired end of prosperity.

WIENBERG-BIGGINS WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William Biggins gave in holy wedlock their daughter, Willie Mae to Mr. George Wienberg, last Monday night. The young couple is well known and has a large circle of friends who wish them well.

BUSINESS LEAGUE HEARS REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The Negro Business League met in the auditorium of the Community House, Tuesday night with a fairly good attendance. Business of importance was transacted. Among the features attracting attention of members were reports of various committees. A review of the League's work was made by ex-president E. W. D. Welch after which secretary Booker read and itemized report of the Negro carnival which exhibited here under the auspices of the league. The report showed that $112.87 was a net balance for the treasury. J. H. Dixon, presiding.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY NEWS.

Washington, District of Columbia, Nov. 12.—The Reconstruction and Readjustment Congress to be held at Howard University, Washington, D. C., Thursday, Nov. 13, 1919, the day following the inauguration of Dr. J. Stanley Durkee as President of the University, promises to be an affair of considerable importance. Representatives from all parts of the country will be present at the inauguration and are to take part in the discussions of the Congress.

The program as formulated calls for a discussion of national and international problems: race, thrift, child welfare, The Negro and the Church, The Situation Abroad, The Situation in America, Co-operation of White and Negro Churches, Social Uplift in the church, The Negro in the Reconstruction, Negro Labor, Negro Education, Negro Citizenship, Representatives of the Great Welfare Agencies of the Country, state and international boards of health, bureau of the government, leading churches and authorities of national and international reputation have been invited to speak upon the several subjects outlined above. It is expected that out of the Congress will grow the formulation of a program looking to the reconstruction of the nation, particularly to the Negro, as well as the problems of reconstruction, more or less, of necessity include him.

Three sessions of the Congress are to be held at 10:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and at 8:00 p. m. President Durkee will preside at the sessions of the Congress.

MUST HAVE A PROMPT TO RAISE COTTON

By S. C. HOYLE, Editor of Extension Publications, A and M College of Texas.

There seems to have been prevalent opinion that the south must raise cotton or starve, but this theory is rapidly being explored and the southern farmers are taking a determined stand as evidenced by their stand at the first World's Cotton Conference held in New Orleans October 13th to 16th inclusive, at which the famous note was the unalterable resolve of the Southern farmers not to raise cotton unless they could do so at a profit according to Director T. O. Walton, Assistant Director W. E. Lanham and Walton Petard of the Extension Service, A and M College of Texas, who were delegates to this conference.

WISHES TO BUY LIVING NEGROES EYES.

You would consider a man wanting to buy eyes crazy. Well, when you try to save a little money by patronizing eye-glass peddlers and cut rate spectacle shops, you are selling your previous eyesight to surgeons.

Your optometrist should be in a well equipped office, his training scholarship and experience should be easily seen.

You ought to be Particular About Your Eyes.

A cheap peddler or shop-keeper might save you a little money and in his ignorance lose your eyesight. Remember Texas is one of the few states that has no laws against "spec peddling." You can go out "tittin' glasses." But don't do it. Send your friends to a proven expert, port, educated and equipped to the minute.

MAMMOTH THEATRE

Don't forget Tuesday is Country Store Night—(25 prizes given away.)
Saturday, November 15, Special Attraction,
WM. S. HART. Featured in "THE NARROW TRAIL"

A 5-reel western production—one day only—Matinee 2 p. m. Saturday, November 15th.

One would think that every thrill every act of reckless dare-deviltry, had been injected in William S. Hart photodramas. However, this famous Western character always figures in some new and strutting adventures.

For instance, in "THE NARROW TRAIL," the initial Ince-Artercraft picture, which will be seen at the Mammoth on Saturday, Hart portrays an outlaw who falls under the influence of a beautiful girl. He loves her with all the desperate passion of which his wild nature is capable, and determines to reform. In doing this, his source of income is naturally shut off, and he is in trying straits for ready cash.

Just at this crisis, a big Rodeo is to be held in a nearby city. A cash prize is offered for the principal event—a "jump in the saddle and away" race—and the outlaw determines to enter himself and his Pinto pony. In doing so he knows he is taking a tremendous risk, as the peculiarly marked pony is known to the sheriff and his deputies; but goaded by necessity he takes a chance, and in the presence of a crowd leaps into the saddle.

It is during this wild ride its throngs of contesting cowboys that excitement rises to its highest pitch.
